

General Information
Overflow National Wildlife Refuge was established in 1980 to preserve one of the remaining bottomland hardwood areas considered vital for maintaining mallard, wood duck and other waterfowl populations. Public hunting is permitted on approximately 12,000 acres during specific times of the year. Special arrangements can be made to accomodate persons with bona fide disabilities by contacting the refuge office.

Individuals utilizing the refuge are subject to inspections of permits, licenses, hunting equipment, bag limits, boats, vehicles and their contents by refuge or state officers.

To ensure your safety and enjoyment while visiting Overflow please take the time to become familiar with the following regulations.

General Refuge Regulations
The regulations below supplement the general regulations which govern hunting on national wildlife refuges as set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations. Hunting will be in accordance with applicable State regulations subject to the following conditions.
